Tour the area's finest homes during the 2019 Blue Ridge Mountains Parade of Homes April 6-7, 2019 – Blue Ridge, GA

Blue Ridge, GA – The Blue Ridge Mountains Parade of Homes organizers recently announced the scheduling of their inaugural event, April 6 & 7, 2019. The Parade will highlight 20 professional custom homes. Admission is $30 per person. Tickets will be available at www.blueridgemtnparadeofhomes.com in January 2019. The homes on tour include mountain homes in the scenic mountains of north Georgia as well as surrounding Lake Blue Ridge.

Blue Ridge Mountains Parade of Homes coordinator and spokesperson, Keith Sumner says, "The housing market is really hot right now and the Parade gives consumers an opportunity to visit a variety of new homes and meet with perspective builders." Homes in the 2019 parade range from $650,000 on up to $2 million. Although most of the homes average about 4,000 square feet there are several homes in the parade that are close to 6,000 square feet. All money raised by the event will go toward a scholarship fund dedicated to helping kids attend to a trade school.

The homes in the 2019 Parade are located in several different counties through North Georgia including, Fannin, Gilmore and Union. "We hope that this event will benefit the entire community by bringing perspective home buyers to the area where they can enjoy other local offerings like the wineries, outdoor activities, local shopping, the beautiful Lake Blue Ridge, breathtaking mountain ranges, etc." Said Keith Sumner.

Sumner adds that the "homes are built by the area's finest builders and designed to accommodate a busy family with an appreciation for the outdoors. The homes boast great views of the north Georgia mountains with large windows in the great rooms and expansive outdoor living spaces that allow for outdoor living and breathtaking views year-round."

The Blue Ridge Mountains Parade of Homes builders include: Don Clement, Travis Coleman, Tommy Wosyluk, Keith Sumner, Marc Nicholson, Buzz Quintrell, Satterwhite Log Homes, Travis Coleman and Kevin Teauge
