596 Lake View Drive

Kevin Teague Custom Homes

Description

Boasting an unbelievable view across Lake Blue Ridge and long range mountain views galore! This mountain retreat has 60+ mile views and is nestled on a large lot in the highly desired private community of "Ridges Over the Lake." Getting there requires a calming ride through National Forests and around the edges of Lake Blue Ridge. The ride sets the tone of the mood in the mountains and ends with pure relaxation. This 4 bedroom, 4 and 1/2 bath lodge retreat screams Blue Ridge living inside and out. The oversized master suite is located on the upper level, featuring a large master bath with shade changing glass that provides long range mountain views with the flip of a switch, whether lying in bed or standing in the shower. There's also a private master porch with a double-sided see-through fireplace that works both inside and out. Just outside the master entrance is a large loft-office with an amazing cat walk that spans across the living room and vaulted ceilings to a Juliette porch that brings the mountains to your fingertips. The main level features a large living room, kitchen, and dining room all in one huge, open floor plan with a large rock fireplace and a wall of windows to take in the view. The open kitchen features plenty of cooking room with high end alder wood cabinets with top scale granite. Upon entry, you clearly see through the house to the amazing mountain and lake views. Also, on the main level is a large second master suite. This large bedroom is complimented with a 2nd master en-suite with double bowl vanity and grand tile shower. The terrace level features a large den area with stacked rock fireplace and custom-built bar and custom cabinets, sink, refrigerator and elevated, custom bar top. This home is a true rustic beauty, matched with elegance. For a truly amazing mountain experience, Ridges over the Lake is the place you must come and see.
