Tommy Wosyluk Custom Homes

Description

Perched way up high in the Aska Adventure Area in the Deer Creek subdivision, this craftsman home features a soaring end wall of glass that provides a panoramic view of Lake Blue Ridge and a layer of mountains that is just outside of arms reach. Relax and entertain outdoors on one of the screened in living spaces while enjoying mountain views and the warmth of a stack stone, wood burning fireplace. The homes interior features three master bedrooms and two additional fireplaces. A custom large timber stairwell with over-sized, mortised treads and Rebar railing system lends itself to the perfect internal blend of wood, drywall and timber beams. Upstairs, you'll find a second master sized bedroom with private screened-in deck and an eastern facing view of the Blue Ridge Mountains.
